Pre-Registration Period Set-Up For Kindergartners

An eight-day pre-registration period for children entering kindergarten for the first time this fall will be held in all elementary schools of the Los Angeles City School System early in September, it was announced this week by Associate Superintendent Dr. Paul F. Shafer, elementary school's chief.

The pre-registration period will be held on weekdays starting Tuesday, September 4 and running to Friday, September 14. Registration will not be held on Monday, September 10, when schools will close for observance of Admission Day. Schools open Monday, September 17.

Children entering kindergarten in September must be five years old on or before December 1, 1956, under provisions of the California Education Code, while children entering the first grade must have reached their sixth birthday also on December 1. However, a court decision has determined that the next age is attained the day prior to the birth date. Therefore, for admission purposes, these birth dates extend to children born on the second as well as the first.

Children pre-registering must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. However, for convenience of working parents, children may be registered by an adult so designated by the parent or guardian.

Proof of age is required for admission to either kindergarten or first grade. Acceptable documents are a birth certificate, a duly attested baptismal certificate, passport, health office or vital statistics record of birth date, or an affidavit of parent or guardian.

Children who attended kindergarten last semester but are not yet eligible for admission to the first grade need not be re-registered, since they will automatically be enrolled.

Children transferring to a school from a kindergarten in another Los Angeles city school will be assured automatically of enrollment. However, children transferring from a school outside the city system must be processed as if they were entering a kindergarten or first grade for the first time.

Although kindergarten waiting lists are expected in a few fast-growing areas of the city, the older children will be given seats first until class maximums are reached. Those still not enrolled will be placed on waiting lists until vacancies exist. Last June less than 550 were on waiting lists for kindergarten although enrollment totaled more than 37,000. All children will be accepted for the other grades, however.

TV Program Guide to Books Issued for Kids

It's a find! It's a vacation miracle. It's for every child in every family. It's free. It's at the Torrance branch of the Los Angeles county public library.

This unusual gift to Torrance boys and girls was described today by County Librarian John D. Henderson as "a booklet that lists 39 weekly television programs and all the story books in the library that deal with the same subjects as the TV shows."

The booklet was prepared by the Children's Division under the direction of Division Chief, Miss Dorothy Hansen. It names the stations and channels on which the programs appear and beneath each show title, the titles of the books that have been paired with that particular program.

If a young patron is a fan of "Ramar of the Jungle," Station KTTV, Channel 11, and wants to delve deeper into jungle lore, he or she can visit the library at 1345 Post ave., and ask branch librarian, Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson for any one of 13 fascinating jungle books. They are: "On Jungle Trails," "Black Lightning," "Tales of Momolu," "Jungle Book," "Bruma Boy," "Thirty-one Brothers and Sisters," "Fierce-Face," "Ghond, the Hunter," "Kari, the Elephant," "Rain Forest," "Thunder Country," "Lions on the Hunt," or "White Panther."

For the boy or girl who is a sports fan and wouldn't miss a single showing of "Tom Harmon Sports," KNXT, Channel 12, the library recommends: "How to Play Baseball," "Blackboard Magic," "How to Play Big League Baseball," "Young Readers' Sports Treasury," "Triple Play," "Jimmy's Own Basketball," "All American," "Buddy and Old Pro" and "Yea Wildcats."

Other book titles fit other TV titles, including even the "Weather Report" KRCA, Channel 4. For that one the booklet lists "Our Changing

Alvarez Plays on Army Ball Team

Army Pvt. Manuel Alvarez, son of Mrs. Lupe F. Alvarez, 1134 W. 209th st., Torrance, is playing softball in Korea on the 31st Infantry Regiment's Company A team.

Alvarez, a rifleman in Company A, entered the Army in September, 1955 and received basic training at Fort Ord.

Weather," "Hurricanes and Twisters," "Everyday Weather and How it Works" and "Weathercraft," all written for a child's understanding and interest.

With these booklets in hand, the county librarian said, boys and girls can outline their own summer reading program and become specialists in the subject that interests them most on TV.

Airman Scallion In Phillippines

Airman Second Class John D. Scallion, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Molino, 22781 Ocean avenue, Torrance, has arrived in the Philippines where he will be serving a tour of duty with the U. S. Thirteenth Air Force.

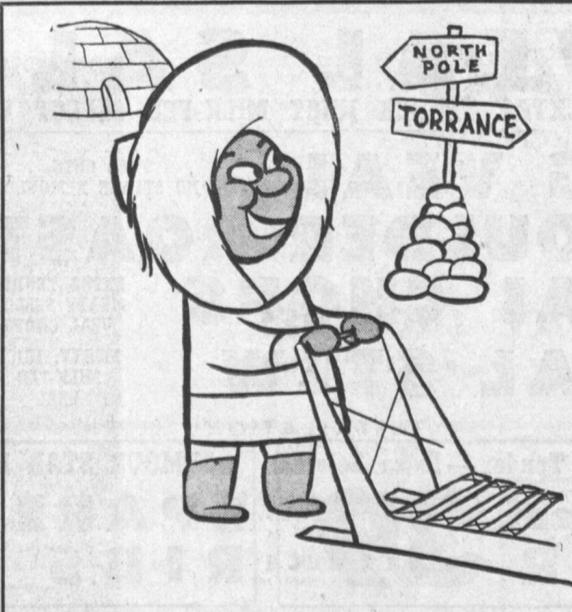

Now stationed at Clark Air base, located 60 miles north of Manila, he has assumed duties as an aircraft repair technician for the 6200th Field Maintenance squadron, 6200th Air Base Wing.

Airman Scallion was graduated from Torrance high before joining the air force in August 1954.

He is married to the former Myrna Dyksterhuis, who with their two children, Grace Marie, 2, and Karen Sue, 3 months, lives in Gardena.

LINCOLN

The longest, lowest, most powerful Lincoln of all time

Lincoln... for the longest vacation of your life!

This year, your vacation can be 365 days long—if you're driving a Lincoln. Because in this fine car, every drive is a vacation in itself.

As for the really long vacation trips—well, our owners come back more enthused about Lincoln than ever. They find they can drive all day in this big roomy car without feeling fatigued... and that their wives are happy to take over the wheel anytime—because Lincoln is so easy to handle.

The reason? Lincoln's exclusive suspension system (a big factor in Lincoln's sweeping victories in the last three Mexican Road Races) combined with advanced-design power steering—plus Lincoln's solid, low-to-the-ground stability, and the deep-set, lounge-type seats that are carefully positioned for over-the-road comfort.

Before you start on your "scheduled" vacation, you should experience this Lincoln ride first-hand. You should know, too, the superb power team of Lincoln's 285 horsepower engine and smooth, smooth Turbo-Drive... and the convenience and ease of Lincoln's wonderful power assists.

But look. Talking about this car simply doesn't do the job. You've got to drive it, and we invite you to come in and do just that—anytime.
